DECLARATION

I hereby declare that the attached term paper for the following class (title / lecturer):

Web data collection with R / Sascha Göbel

on the following topic:

Back to the roots? New significance of traditional tools is the result of my own, independent work. I have not used any aids or sources other than those I have referenced in the document.

For contributions and quotations from the works of other people (whether distributed electronically or in hardcopy), I have identified each of them with a reference to the source or the secondary literature. Failure to do so constitutes plagiarism. I will also submit the term paper electronically to the lecturer. Furthermore, I declare that the above-mentioned work has not been otherwise submitted as a term paper.

I am aware that papers that turn out to be plagiarized will be graded "insufficient" (5,0). Every suspected case of plagiarism will be submitted to the examination board, which will decide on further sanctions. The legal basis for this procedure can be found in the examination regulations. These rules also apply to students that study Politics and Public Administration as a minor subject.
